

It's not US vs. THEM...

We're all in this together.

There is still a place where you can find intelligent, nonpartisan conversation about policy issues...The League of Women Voters of Washington County.

Join us September 7 at 5:00 to learn more...

Walker Room of the Fayetteville Public Library

The League of Women Voters is a multi-issue organization, whose mission is to encourage the informed and active participation of citizens in the government and to influence public policy through education and advocacy. The Washington County League provides non-partisan political information, a guide to elected officials, candidate forums, programs on current issues, a citizens' information guide, and other resources to help citizens participate in the political process.
