

President's Note

We turn 100 on March 17th, but we'll be toasting the occasion, along with the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th amendment, on March 1st at George's Majestic Lounge. I hope to see you there!

If you don't already follow our Facebook page, I highly recommend checking us out there! Please also consider joining as a member if you haven't already. You can now renew your membership and join as a new member ONLINE!

Thank you for your continued support of our local league!

Come Celebrate with Us As We Turn 100!

Please join us next month as we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of OUR local League of Women Voters of Washington County!

On the afternoon of Sunday, March 1, an amazing lineup of women-led bands will play music and help us dance and sing our way into the next century at George's Majestic Lounge on Dickson Street. It's just $5 at the door, with a cash bar that will include our very own Century Celebration signature cocktail.

In between bands, we'll hear from our local League President Bonnie Miller, Rep. Denise Ennett of Little Rock, Fayetteville Mayor Lioneld Jordan, and League member Raven Cook.

Here's the music lineup:

- 2:00: Jenna and the Soul Shakers
- 3:00: Dawn Cate Band
- 4:00: Jamie Lou and The Hullabaloo
- 5:00: Leah & the Mojo Doctors
- 6:15-7:30: Rochelle Bradshaw & Hypnotion

If you'd like to sponsor the Century Celebration or volunteer, please e-mail info@lwvarwc.org.

Independent Redistricting Commission

Are you interested in working with us to end partisan gerrymandering and get an independent redistricting commission established in the state of Arkansas? People

Powered Fair Maps is the campaign that the National League of Women Voters has launched in all 50 states. We'll be doing a lot of work to educate Arkansans about the effects of partisan gerrymandering and work to get a ballot initiative passed to establish an independent redistricting commission. We want fair maps! If you're interested in helping, please email Bonnie at info@lwvarwc.org

March Board Meeting

We will be meeting at 6pm on March 11 in the Henry Board Room at the Fayetteville Public Library. Please join us to get more involved and hear about the upcoming events and projects we have in the works.

Chair of Voter Services Vacancy

We are looking for someone who is passionate about voter registration to serve as our Chair of Voter Services. Are you interested?? Please e-mail info@lwvarwc.org
